

Life's Wheel

Here, the rain
And it's such sweet rain
Running through the rain
I step on you

Here, the pain
And it's such grim pain
What do you save from the pain?
I'm watching you

They are stopping to look back
Where is the child?
We were nothing to the man
Who knew that he's grown up
Life, the wheel goes round

Here, the line
And it's such weak line
There's no proof of the line
My friend is near

Here, the sign
And it's such dim sign
Could you see the sign?
Noah's Ark is here

Slowly, it has formed in mind
Shaping the sound
Finally, has it needed you to kill that glory?
My life is a wheel
That goes round
